

"The Heart of a Disciple-Making Church"

Matthew 13:44-46 | Quentin Self

1. We need eyes to see the value of the Kingdom.

- You can't force yourself to grow kingdom senses.
- You can fail to put your kingdom senses to use.

2. We need willingness to respond.

- Your sacrifices will never exceed the level of love in your heart.
- Disciple-making begins with a heart that treasures Christ above all else.
- When you see the value of God's Kingdom, no sacrifice will seem too great.

3. We must re-capture a vision of Jesus that makes us uncomfortable, yet captivates us.
